

Yotin Chinvarun M.D. Ph.D. FAES

พลโท ดร. นพ. โยธิน ชินวาลัญช์

Col. General. Dr. Yotin Chinvarun is a Neurologist and Specialists in Epilepsy, Sleep disorder, and Neuroimaging at the Neurology Division, Phramongkutklao Royal Army Hospital (PMK), Bangkok, Thailand and Bangkok hospital. He is consultants at Comprehensive Epilepsy and Sleep Disorder Program at the same institution and running an epilepsy and sleep fellowship program.

Dr Chinvarun was achieved the AUSAIDs scholarship to training in Epilepsy Fellowship program and Ph.D. (Neurology) at Austin & Repatriation Medical Center, University of Melbourne, Australia. 1995-1998. He also get the TOP scholar award for the outstanding research from the Australian Epilepsy Society in 1996.

He was a pioneer settling up epilepsy surgery, VNS, deep brain stimulation in epilepsy, PET, SPECT and new AEDs trial in Thailand. He worked at Epilepsy centre at Chulalongkorn University, between 1998 to 2000 and the PMK hospital since year 2000. He also has expertise in functional neuroimaging, SPECT, PET brain, EEG source localization and EEG-fMRI.

He also holds numerous positions in academia and with professional societies – he is currently worked as committee in ILAE imaging task force (2018-Present). He has authored various research articles in prestigious local and international peer-reviewed journals. Also, he worked affiliated research with the Faculty of Bio-engineering, Toronto university. He had been worked as reviewer of Epilepsia, Epilepsia open, Epileptic disorders and Epilepsy & Behavior Journal.